Overview:

Many leaders go unrecognized, but their efforts are felt deep in the heart of our communities. Healthy communities are places where people of all ages can grow and thrive – places where people have access to a good education, a decent job and a safe place to live.

Recognizing the many activities that determine health beyond the provision of medical services, this award will go to a physician who contributes to the health and well-being of a community through their public service.

Criteria:

Makes a significant contribution to the health and well-being of their community outside the practice of medicine.

Demonstrate an understanding that health starts where we live, learn, work and play.

Tips for writing your nomination:

Describe how the physician has made a significant contribution to the health and well-being of his/her community.

Provide examples of how the physician understands that health starts where we live, learn, work and play.

What are some of the physician's personal characteristics that have made his/her achievements possible?
